

Faculty Responsibilities Code

The Faculty Handbook identifies faculty rights and faculty responsibilities. Consistent with the Faculty Responsibilities Code, anyone—including students, faculty, staff, and administrators—with a concern that a faculty member may not be fulfilling his or her responsibilities may express the concern to an appropriate Unit Head (department chair or dean of the unit in which the faculty holds a primary appointment). The concern will be resolved consistent with the procedures of the Faculty Responsibilities Code (<https://facultyhandbook.georgetown.edu/section3/#7>) in the Faculty Handbook.
