MLSC 1101 Introduction to the Army 1 Credit

MSL101 focuses on introduction to the Army and critical thinking.

It introduces Cadets to the Army and the Profession of Arms.

Students will examine the Army Profession and what it means to be a professional in the U.S. Army. The overall focus is on developing basic knowledge and comprehension of the Army Leadership Requirements Model while gaining a complete understanding of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) program, its purpose in the Army, and its advantages for the student. Cadets also learn how resiliency and fitness supports their development as an Army leader. Includes a weekly lab facilitated by MSL III Cadets and supervised by Cadre.

Comments: This is to properly align ROTC course with a proper name per United States Army Cadet Command curriculum. Currently all of our courses have two names MLSC and MSL and it should be only MSL. This change should apply to all 3 sections of the MSL101 course.
