

Regional & Comparative Studies (RCST)

RCST 4949 Regionl/Compartv Stud Tutorial 3 Credits

Permission of SFS Dean's Office required.

Level: Undergraduate

Grading: Main Campus (UGrad, Grad)

RCST 4960 RCST Portfolio Workshop 1 Credit

This one-credit workshop course is offered for all senior majors in Regional and Comparative Studies (RCST) who are not writing an Honors Thesis. The course is designed to provide a capstone experience to senior RCST majors. It will allow students to reflect on and synthesize what they have learned in the course of their studies as regional experts.

Level: Graduate, Undergraduate

Grading: Main Campus (UGrad, Grad)

RCST 4980 RCST Honors Thesis Workshop 1 or 3 Credits

Writing a thesis requires hard sustained work but can be the most rewarding intellectual experience of your undergraduate tenure. This year-long workshop is designed to guide you through writing your thesis in Regional and Comparative Studies (RCST). We will meet weekly in the fall and every other week in the spring. The workshop will provide a combination of practical tips for making steady progress on your thesis and will introduce a variety of disciplinary lenses for your research areas. Topics of discussion will include setting an agenda, developing a research design method, determining most applicable methodologies, utilizing sources, and writing a literature review. The workshop is also intended to build a community of like-minded thesis writers with whom you can develop and sharpen your ideas through peer feedback. In addition to producing an original thesis, a desired goal is to cultivate an affinity for research and writing.

Level: Undergraduate

Grading: Pass/Fail Default

RCST 4981 RCST Honors Thesis Workshop II 1 Credit

Writing a thesis requires hard sustained work but can be the most rewarding intellectual experience of your undergraduate tenure. This year-long workshop is designed to guide you through writing your thesis in Regional and Comparative Studies (RCST). We will meet weekly in the fall and every other week in the spring. The workshop will provide a combination of practical tips for making steady progress on your thesis and will introduce a variety of disciplinary lenses for your research areas. Topics of discussion will include setting an agenda, developing a research design method, determining most applicable methodologies, utilizing sources, and writing a literature review. The workshop is also intended to build a community of like-minded thesis writers with whom you can develop and sharpen your ideas through peer feedback. In addition to producing an original thesis, a desired goal is to cultivate an affinity for research and writing. This course is a continuation of RCST 304.

Level: Undergraduate

Prerequisites: (RCST 304 or RCST 4980)

Grading: Pass/Fail Default

RCST 4998 Regionl/Comparativ Stud Hon Tu 3 Credits

Permission of SFS Dean's Office required.

Level: Undergraduate

Grading: Pass/Fail Default

RCST 4999 Honors Tutorial 3 Credits

Permission of SFS Dean's Office required.

Level: Undergraduate

Grading: Main Campus (UGrad, Grad)