

Certificate in Nursing

The Berkley School of Nursing at Georgetown University offers an online Post-Graduate Certificate (PGC) program.

The Post-Graduate Certificate program empowers advanced practice nursing professionals to advance their careers and pursue board certification in one of four Advanced Practice Registered Nurse (APRN) specializations: Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP), Adult Gerontology Acute Care Nurse Practitioner (AG-ACNP), Nurse-Midwifery (NM), and Women's Health Nurse Practitioner (WHNP).

Requirements

Students will meet with their program director to determine requirements for an individualized plan.
