

Critical Analysis & Applied Ethics, Undergraduate Certificate

---

Requirements

To earn an undergraduate certificate in Critical Analysis & Applied Ethics, students must successfully complete 6 courses (18 credits) from courses selected by the program to meet the certificate requirements. Courses include but are not limited to:

| Code          | Title                          | Credits |
|---------------|--------------------------------|---------|
| BLHV 1003     | Religion and the Word          | 3       |
| BLHV 1004     | Ancient Mediter: CulturI Intra | 3       |
| BLHV 1001     | Phil of Gender, Love, Sex      | 3       |
| BLHV 1002     | The Human Condition            | 3       |
| BLHV 1038     | Humanities Encounters          | 3       |
| BLHV 2005     | Ethical Leadership             | 3       |
| Total Credits |                                | 18      |

Corresponding Credentials and Degree Requirements

Students may complete this certificate on its own or as part of the Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies degree (to include applying the certificate courses to the appropriate elective and concentration requirements).