Theology & Religious Studies Minor

Requirements

Requirements for the Minor in Theology and Religious Studies

The minor requires a total of six courses:

- 2 core courses – THEO 1000 or THEO 1100 and one additional course 1000-3999
- Four additional electives. Minors are required to take one course at the seminar level (4000+), and one course at the “advanced intermediate” level (3000+), though this second requirement can be waived at the discretion of the Director of Undergraduate Studies.

Note: At least four courses in the minor must be THEO courses, originating in the Theology and Religious Studies department (i.e., there can be no more than two courses in other Georgetown University departments that have been cross-listed or transferred from study abroad or summer at another institution, subject to approval from the Director of Undergraduate Studies). An exception is made for transfer students, who may transfer a maximum of three courses taken at a previous institution.
